Supervisor Greg Cox In the Coming Week

HONORING OUR VETERANS

Supervisor Greg Cox will participate in the annual Veteran's Day Parade, riding in one of the convertible cars down the parade route, which starts at the County Administration Center. Supervisor Cox is a strong supporter of veterans and this year, he organized a celebrity fundraiser for the Chula Vista Veterans Home and participated in the Spirit of '45 campaign.

11 a.m., Thursday, November 11, outside the County Administration Center, 1600 Pacific Highway

ERASING THE STIGMA OF MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES FOR LATINOS

Supervisor Greg Cox will join mental health officials in launching a bilingual Fotonovela that aims to change the way Latinos view mental disorders and encourages them to seek help.

10:30 a.m. Friday, November 12, Health and Human Services South Region Center, 690 Oxford Street, Chula Vista

HELPING HOMELESS AND RUNAWAY YOUTH

Supervisor Greg Cox will help proclaim the month of November Runway and Homeless Youth Month at a meeting of the California Coalition for Youth. The goals of the month are to raise awareness of the prevalence of runaways and homeless youth and identify resources available for them.

10:15 a.m. Monday, November 15, Father Joe's Village, 640 16th St.
